

I am writing to support the Petition for Stay and the Petition for Emergency Clarification filed by the American Society of Association Executives. This proposed action would severely hamper small not-for profit's ability to adequately communicate with our members, both past, present and future due to the significantly increased labor involved in obtaining written permission from each. This action will also jeopardize existing and new relationship if the requirement of having to produce more paperwork on their end becomes an additional burden.